

NZIOB CPD Activities and Accruable Credits

The following are recognised as CPD activities and show the credits that can be claimed each time they are completed together with the maximum number of credits that can be claimed in any one year.

	CPD Activity	Credits per activity	Max credits per year
1.	Undertakes formal relevant learning (where not a student member) e.g post grad degree, degree, diploma or certificate.	10 (on any)	10 (on all 3)
2.	Short courses e.g Archicad/Vector works, Site Safe Passport.	1 (for each 2 hrs)	10
3.	Industry service e.g NZIOB Council or Chapter. (Other assoc must be industry aligned)	Council 5 Chapter 5 Other assoc 3	5
4.	Research and publishing of industry related topic publication based on established international research and publishing rating system (published in a NZ industry related publication other than Progressive Building).	10	10
5.	Attendance at technical presentations or site visits e.g chapter breakfasts.	3 (per event)	9
6.	Industry training seminars or workshops of technical relevance. As a facilitator - and includes preparation and delivery (2 hrs minimum)	5	5
7.	Industry training seminars or workshops of technical relevance. As an active attendee - (2 hrs minimum)	3 (per event)	9
8.	Industry publications (other than manufacturers promos) e.g writing articles for Progressive Building, Build etc.	5 (min 1500 words)	10
9.	Attend working sessions and active participation at a national NZIOB conference (2days).	5 (per day)	10
10.	Lecturing/teaching at a recognised tertiary institute as a guest speaker.	5 (per session)	10
11.	Participation in LBP activities (as set down by the LBP Registrar)	LBP rates to apply	10